

THE MUNICIPALITY HOSTS A DAY OF PRAYER

The Executive Mayor of Thabo Mofutsanyana District Municipality, Councillor Malefu Vilakazi, has called on a day of prayer and moral regeneration event for the Councillors and staff of Thabo Mofutsanyana District Municipality, including those of the nearby Maluti-a-Phofung Local Municipality and community members.

The event will take place on Wednesday, 1 April 2015, in the Thabo Mofutsanyana District Municipality Council Chambers in the Old Parliament Building. It will start at 11am.

According to the Executive Mayor the aim of the event is to encourage humanity, unity and a common vision of building united society at all levels, including at workplaces.

The event will include a prayer service and pledges by the staff of Thabo Mofutsanyana District Municipality to uphold the spirit of Ubuntu and to be a shining light of demonstrating humanity.
